If I am remembering it correctly I was not totally sure how I paid them on our call, I believe I said I think either I paid via Venmo, Zelle or cash, since it was couple years ago, I have to double check. I will provide you with that information once I can do research and find the paper work.

As per Sarim's information, Let me see if I can get his permission to share that information with you. I don't want to get in trouble for sharing his information if he is not okay with it without knowing for what reason his information is being shared.

There is no communication proof since it was verbal and over the phone as I told you on our video call. I will send the invoices when I get them. Since it was more than 2-3 years ago, I have to retrieve them, and as soon as I do, I will forward them to you.

Th reason we dont't have an attorney is because we cannot afford it, we are trying to gather funds in order to afford the basic representation.

I appreciate you agreeing to an extension time.

My brother was CCd in the last email and he is fully aware of our correspondence, and he is CCd in this one as-well!

Thank you.

Mr. Khan,

On August 8, you asked for an extension of time so that you could retain an attorney. We gave you an extension until September 9 as a courtesy to you and to permit you time to retain counsel. While you accepted the extension, you did not retain counsel.

You have not provided us with any information to assist us in evaluating your claims and your deadline has now passed.

We will agree to give you one last extension, to September 30, but I cannot guarantee that the court will agree to it.

I asked that you cc your brother on this correspondence. As you are well-aware, it is unlawful to practice law without a license (Cal. BPC § 6125) and you cannot represent him. Please add him to the correspondence.

Jo

Good Morning Jo,

We just consulted with an attorney, and trying to hire them as soon as possible, we are trying to gather funds in order to pay initial amount to get attorney services.

I would like to request an extension of 3 weeks, so we can gather more information to provide it to you.

Thank you.
